As Principal of Littleton High School, it gives me a great deal of pleasure to make a small contribution to the 1967 edition of the BLUE JAY.

Your high school days will long be remembered by each of you. I hope that in the future you will be inspired by the work that you have done during your high school career.

You have shown that you have the ability to achieve whatever you may seek. In the past you have set your goals high and have worked hard to reach them. May God give you the determination to continue your efforts so that you may become a leader in our future society.

Good luck and best wishes.

E.T. Satterfield, Jr., Principal
Littleton High School

To The Seniors

I appreciate the opportunity to offer greetings from the Board of Education and the Superintendent of Schools in the 1967 edition of the BLUE JAY and I commend you for the publication of the yearbook which will mean much to you in future years when you reminisce of wonderful years in the Littleton High School.

We are proud of the Littleton School and the good work done there by the principal, the teachers and the students. We hope that all of your future endeavors will be as successful as your school years at Littleton.

J.R. Peeler, Superintendent
Warren County Schools

D e d i c a t i o n

Each year the Senior Class of Littleton High School dedicates its annual to some member of the faculty who, in doing his job of molding the citizens of the future, deserves special recognition.

Enthusiastic with the principles of education, not only in the classroom but throughout the many phases of school life, she has endeavored to serve all students.

Her patience and guidance have been a constant inspiration.

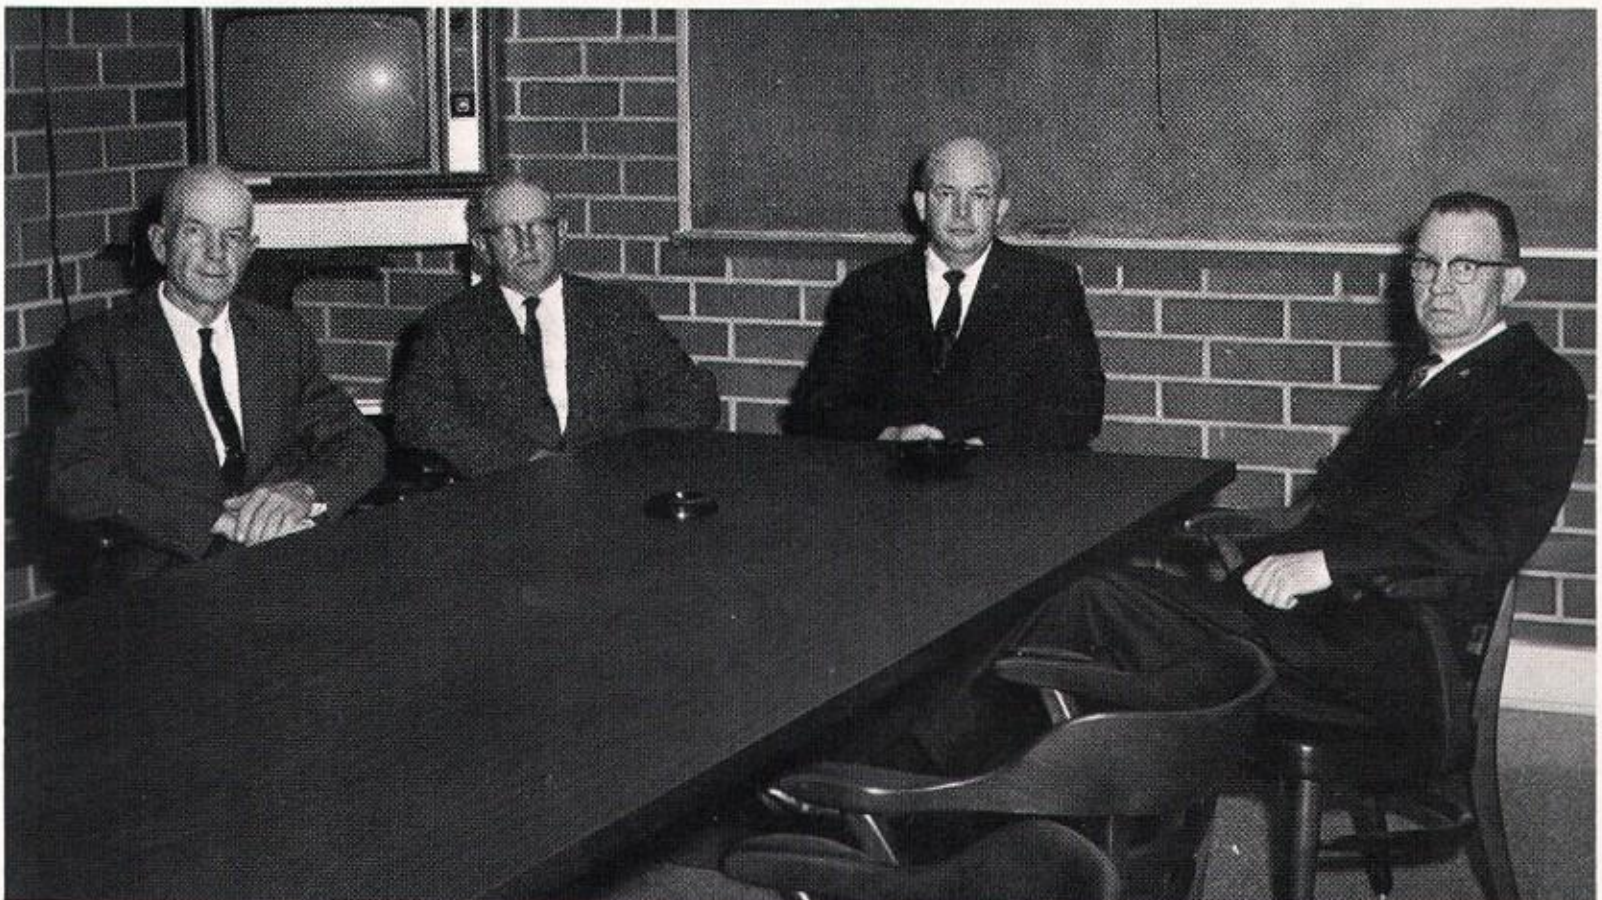

To one who has done much to increase school spirit, who is always ready and willing to encourage and advise us, and who has set an example worthy of being followed, we, the Senior Class of 1967 proudly dedicate the BLUE JAY to Mrs. Geraldine H. Spragins.

Shakespeare's Sonnets

120
That you were once unkind befriends me now,
And for that sorrow, which I then did feel,
Must I under my transgression bow,
While my nerves were by my unkindness shaken,
As you were by my unkindness shaken,
When I have done you wrong, you've pass'd a hell of time,
And I, that should be your remorse, your comfort, and your friend,
Am turned to poison, and your enemy, your foe,
And in your hate, I find myself alone,
And in your love, I find myself alone,
And in your hate, I find myself alone,
And in your love, I find myself alone.

120

121
Tis better to be vile than vile esteem'd,
When not to be receives reproach of being;
And the just pleasure lost, which is so deep,
Not by our feeling, but by others' seeing.
For why should others' false appraisals,
Or on my frailties, as their sin, I think,
Which in their wills count bad in me,
No, I am that I am, and they themselves
At my abuses reckon up their doings,
By their rank thoughts my deeds they add,
Unless this general evil I intend,
All men are bad and all their tongues are bad.

121

Thy gift, thy tables, which doth feed my brain,
Full character'd with each passion's strain,
Which shall all day long in me remain,
Beyond all other books, I'll keep them still,
Or at the hour of my desire, I'll read,
Till I am weary of my own device,
Nor need I tallies, which my senseless hand
To keep them from me, as I hold,
To trust those tables that receive thee more,
To keep an adjunct to remember thee,
Were to import forgetfulness in me.

BETTER LIVING FROM TREES

FARMERS ARE LOGGERS, TOO!

Farmers are America's largest group of woodland owners. They own almost a third of the nation's commercial forestland.

Alert farmers are fast becoming Tree Farmers by managing and protecting their woodlands as the source of a cash crop.

Be careful with fire in the woods. Protect the timber crops.

As We Depart ...

As graduation approaches we are filled with the anticipation of a new life and yet we are reluctant to bid farewell to all we have loved so long. No more will we walk these familiar halls; see the friendly faces we know so well. A new door is being opened. Behind it will be success...happiness...disappointments...failures. An old door is being closed. Behind it lies fond memories...carefree days...cherished friendships. We face the future with brave but sad hearts knowing we have a hard road to travel but remembering the class motto... "There are some defeats more triumphant than victories."

And so farewell from the Class of 1967.
